

NOV 5 1962

Sanitized - Approved For Release CIA-RDP75-00001R000100390092-4

DONOVAN MEETS UPSTATE CHIEFS

FOIAb3b

CPYRIGHT

In Albany He Backs Kennedy
On Medical Care of Aged

Special to The New York Times

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov.

James B. Donovan brought his senatorial campaign to this city today for a round of last-minute talks with Democratic leaders in the Albany-Troy area.

He flew in a chartered plane to Albany from a morning of appearances in New York City.

At the Albany Airport Mr. Donovan said in a television interview that he supported President Kennedy's position on medical care for the aged.

"I am 100 per cent with the President in his solution of the problem, including the Social Security approach if it is demonstrably needed in the best interest of the people," he said.

"Also, I do not believe private enterprise has been given a chance to see what it could do with the problem," he added.

Mr. Donovan met with leaders of Schenectady and Rensselaer County Committees at a cocktail party and dinner. Later he was scheduled to address a rally in Troy before flying back to New York for the last day of the campaign.

Istraduct Talk Here

Earlier today Mr. Donovan addressed 250 members of the Israel Histadut campaign at the Astor Hotel in New York.

"I am opposed to any direct Federal grants to any church-supported educational institutions," Mr. Donovan told the American labor group. "Instead of aid to schools I would like to see aid to students. One way might be tax relief for the parents."

Mr. Donovan told the meeting of his role in presenting the visual evidence of Nazi concentration camp crimes in his role of assistant prosecutor at the Nuremberg trials after World War II.

"My conception of the trials was that they were held not just for the Jewish people," he said. The conscience of all mankind was involved.

"We must all labor together to maintain our civil liberties."

"The most important thing is courageous enforcement of civil rights laws we have had for 100 years."

"While we are fighting to get new legislation we must enforce with Federal marshals the laws already on the books."

Mr. Donovan also attended a breakfast meeting of 1300 Roman Catholic teachers at the Waldorf Astoria hotel and an-
Civil Service at the Commodore Hotel.